GEORGE CONKLIN, Lawrence, Mich.

Local Department.

Wm. F. Cook has sold his farm to Charlotte Wilson for $2,600.

A meeting of Paw Paw Detective Union will be held Dec. 3d, at one o'clock p. m.

Jeff. Chaffee, it seems, gets a wild turkey whenever he wants it. He shot one last week which weighed, when dressed, 16½ lbs.

Social at A. Van Auker's, Tuesday evening the 29th. Everybody is invited. Come and have a cup of coffee and something to eat.

Jim. Sams was arraigned before Esq. Warner and fined $3 and costs for drunkenness, and in default of payment was committed to jail for fifteen days.

W. S. Coon, known here as Hancock, an old tenant of the jail, has resumed his former quarters. He is charged with an attempt to commit a rape at Hartford.

By the appearance and make-up of Vans' paper last week, we judge the editor must have been at home doing housework, and that his paper was run by the devil.

The ladies of the Free Baptist church and society, will give a social at the residence of Geo. W. Matthews, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 29th. All are cordially invited.

Quarterly meeting at the M. E. Church next Saturday and Sunday. Rev. A. R. Boggs, Presiding Elder of Niles district, will be present. Preaching on Saturday evening at 7 p. m.

There will be services held in the First Baptist church of Paw Paw, both morning and evening, Sunday, Nov. 27th. Preaching by Rev. James Goodman of Chicago. It is earnestly desired that all who have an interest in the welfare of this church and society be present.

Dr. H. D. Fuller an old-school practitioner, has opened an office in the Granger block, for the purpose of practicing his profession here. He is from Wisconsin and has the appearance of being a gentleman.

The Dowagiac Republican of last week, publishes the list of questions for teachers examination at Dowagiac, Nov. 27th, 1881. Teachers who read the newspapers, and all teachers should, ought to be well prepared.

Silas O. Williams and Thomas Thompson, both of Almena, were "run in" on Monday last, drunk again, and being arraigned before Esq. Warner, pleaded guilty and were each fined one dollar and costs, which they paid.

The NORTHERNER of this week has been run by "the boys." The editor, it is reported, has been absent on business. This may be so, we don't say it is not, but nevertheless there was a man named Williams arrested and confined in the cooler on Monday last.

The three "deer slayers" of Paw Paw, Cole Rawson, Will Thayer and Colum Engle, have returned from their annual hunt in the Upper Peninsula. They report an unfavorable season for hunting, nevertheless they killed twelve deer, which is not a bad showing.

Mr. Rowland brought to our office on Saturday last, a sprig from a rose bush growing in his yard, on which was a bud nearly full grown. It is a common rose and blossomed last spring and tried hard to do so this fall, but it unfortunately got "nipped in the bud."

We are in the newspaper business quite extensively. We occupy all of our own sheet and a good deal of space in our contemporary, the Courier. Last week the editor of that venacious sheet, kindly set apart about three-fourths of a column for our benefit. Thank you Ed.

Officer Whelpley, on Wednesday, arrested a prominent farmer for being drunk. His trial set for to-day (Friday). Afterward Whelpley and John Shea got into a row over the matter. Result—Shea badly punished and Whelpley arrested for assault and battery. Trial set for Monday.

Among the many useful wedding presents which Maj. Duncan of the Niles Republican received, was a cow, presented by Geo. H. Jerome of Detroit, which awaited the party at the gate, suitably labeled, on their return from the church. A new milch cow is not a bad thing to have at the present time, Bro. Duncan, eh?

Maj. L. A. Duncan, editor of the Niles Republican, was married at the Presbyterian church in that city, to Miss May Bond, late preceptress of the high school of the same place, on the 17th inst. Their reception was largely attended and the happy couple were the recipients of many valuable and costly presents.

We notice that the Herald man got ashamed of his bid for the county printing after he had made it, and raised it $5 when he put it into his paper. Evidently he wanted to overtop the bid of the Courier. We have heard of men raising their own bids before, but we thought Van was too sharp for that.

A. C. Webb's duster, the loss of which was advertised in the NORTHERNER a short time since, was brought to this office a few days ago by a lady, whose name we do not know. If our readers want anything known, they should advertise in the NORTHERNER. It visits more homes and is read by more people than any other paper in the county.

"A subscriber" asks the meaning of the abbreviation "Esq." The original and primary meaning of esquire was, a shield bearer to a Knight. In this country it is universally applied to Justices of the Peace as an honorary title, and Esq. is by custom attached to the surname of a man when written or printed, and when so used, has no greater signification than has Mr. when prefixed to a name. We assure "A subscriber" that the magistrate to whom we gave the title is worthy and eligible to wear it. We are always glad to answer any legitimate and proper questions, but to insure a reply the enquirer's real name should accompany the question, as a guaranty of good faith.

One day last week the officers of the law from Pennsylvania, came for a man by the name of Moyer, who was in the employ of James McDaniel, in the eastern part of Porter township. He was wanted for being implicated with three other men and two women, in killing an old man and his wife about four years ago for their money, and then setting the house on fire to cover up their crime. Three of the party had been tried and convicted, one of whom while awaiting his execution, which would have occurred on the 10th of December, was taken sick and died in prison, and in his last moments confessed the crime, and gave the names of those engaged in it. Moyer left a wife and three children depending on him for support.

A Pleasant Snow Storm.

Some of the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Snow, made them a visit on Friday evening last, it being the 29th birthday of Mrs. S. During the evening Mrs. Snow was presented with a baby (china) greatly to the surprise of the company. The proud and ghost-like form of Mr. Snow (Pomp) could be seen flying around lively, making things pleasant for the guests. Music and games of various kinds were the order of the evening. Philo, was called upon to execute his celebrated so loit. Supper being announced, all partook of a square meal, although the "shack" which constituted a part of the desert, remained intact. The company adjourned at a late hour, wishing their host and hostess many happy birthday returns.

Personals.

Frank Stearns is in Detroit selecting new goods.

A nine pound girl at Fred Jacobs. Fred is happy.

Mrs. E. C. Hendrick has returned from her visit in Ohio.

Miss Kate Fletcher, of South Haven, has been visiting friends here.

Prof. O. Dunham called at our office on Tuesday evening last. Sorry we were out.

Frank Kelley arrived home from Kokomo, Colorado, on Wednesday evening, to spend Thanksgiving with his family.

Mr. E. E. Van Slyke of N. Y., and Mrs. J. M. Badgley of Dundee, have been visiting at their father's, H. C. Van Slyke. They return home the first of next week.

Master Louie Woodman, M. Buskirk, John Breck and other worthy young men of this county, who have been attending the Agricultural college during the fall, are all home for the winter vacation.

Mrs. L. C. Fisk writes us from Creston, Iowa, that as her mother has resided in Almena for the past thirty years, the statement in the NORTHERNER that she, Mrs. F., had gone to Iowa to visit her, is rather far-fetched.

Scissoring.

The South Haven Messenger says a Post of the G. A. R. is to be mustered at that place, to be known as Zack Chandler Post. The boys have chosen a worthy name.

The drive well fellows, when they commence legal operations in this county, will find many powerful witnesses against them. One of them is our esteemed friend, John Cady, who has looked up his old records and finds that in 1867 he put down two drive wells and had them in use before the Green patent was allowed in 1868, and that the idea of his wells was original with him.—Dowagiac Republican.

Last Friday the case against Alonzo Kanaday for furnishing liquor to a person in the habit of getting intoxicated, was tried by a jury, after the date of the offense had been changed, and he was convicted and sentenced to pay $25 fine $19.41 costs and 10 days imprisonment, or in lieu of the cash payment, 90 days in jail. In the course of the trial Kanaday and Wm. Ford swore an affidavit, which was discredited by the jury. On Saturday Commissioner Ketchum granted a writ of certiorari, and Kanaday was released on bail to appear at the December term of the Circuit Court. On Tuesday Kanaday and Ford were examined on a complaint for perjury, bound over for trial in the Circuit Court, and in default of $250 bail each were committed.—Cassopolis Vigilant.

At a regular meeting of the Council of the Order of Chosen Friends, held at their rooms on Monday evening, the following resolution was passed on the death of Mr. John A. Poorman, who was a member of the order:

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Poorman we lost an upright and worthy member, whom we shall greatly miss in our gatherings and deliberations, and that we extend to the bereaved family and friends our sincere sympathies in their sore affliction, and also that a copy of this resolution be sent to the family, and also that they be offered for publication in the periodicals published in this village

O. H. P. SHELDON,
Chief Counselor.

A. W. HENDRICK, Recorder.

State Board of Health.

Comparing the week ending Nov. 12th, with the preceding week, there has been a considerable increase in the area of prevalence of diphtheria, and a considerable decrease in that of diarrhoea and remittent fever. Judging from past experience, diarrhoea has now reached about its least prevalence, but remittent fever may be expected to still further decline during the next three months.

Special reports have been received of small-pox at St. Joseph, Berrien Co., and in Bingham and Leelanaw townships, Leelanaw Co. The disease was brought to St. Joseph from Chicago. In Leelanaw county it began with two Indians who contracted it at Traverse City while loading a vessel with wood. One case of small-pox at Albion is reported Nov. 20, 1881. Because small-pox may be brought to any locality at any time by immigrants or travelers, it is prudent for all persons to seek protection by vaccination or re-vaccination with pure bovine virus. Local Boards of Health are authorized by law to make provisions for free vaccination.
HENRY B. BAKER, Sec.
